

Chamber Riggall Fellowship 2019

PROVIDING UP TO $2,000 IN TRAINING FOR A YOUNG DENILQUIN BUSINESS PERSON

Young people aged 35 or under who work in a Deniliquin business are invited to apply for up to $2,000 towards training, study or professional development.

Applications close 10 May 2019

Get all the application information at denilquinchamber.com.au or discuss with Janet Renehan on 03 5881 2621

Gaye Riggall worked for the Pastoral Times, before starting the Deniliquin Independent as its Editor. She was the first woman councillor on Conargo Shire and, eventually, it's first female Mayor. Gaye loved Deniliquin and had a strong belief in giving back to the community. The Chamber Riggall Fellowship will encourage innovation and education in youth in Deniliquin.

